Ttttttttttt Numb. 6619.

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, January 8. 1723.

Madrid, December 22.

IT is reported, that the Marquess de Lede has obtained Leave of the Court to continue in France till the Middle of March next. An Express is arrived here from our Plenipotentiaries at Cambray, with Advice of what passed at the first Conference between them and the Plenipotentiaries of the Emperour; upon which the King called a Council of State, and the Courier was sent back with new Instructions to his Majesty's Plenipotentiaries, who 'tis said are to receive a Declaration from those of the Emperour touching the Vth Article of the Quadruple Alliance. It is also reported, that several Ships are building in our Ports, to be ready by next Spring; that of the Turks being expected at Sea about the same Time.

Vienna, Dec. 30. Advices from Rome say, that the Pope has newly added to the Instructions of his Nuncio's at Foreign Courts, that they be very watchful for the Tranquility of Italy, and use their best Endeavours to prevent the opening of a new War. 'Tis doubted here nevertheless, by some People, if his Holiness's Influence will prove infallible in that Case. ---- The Envoy of Wolfembuttel, M. Brave, is very pressing at this Court, to have an End put to the Military Execution in Mecklenbourg, that Affair being judged more delicate now since the Czar's Return from his foreign Expedition, than it was before: 'Tis not observed however, that this Court shews any Flexibility more than usual on that Account. --- The chief Difficulties that attended the Affair of Tecklenbourg, are said to be removed, and 'tis thought that Matter will be amicably concluded. Advices from Ratisbon say, that the College of Princes and Electors of the Empire assembled extraordinarily on the 10th Instant, and came to a Resolution to return Thanks to the Emperour for the Care he takes of the common Interest of the Empire, and to declare their Consent to the Infeofment of the Dominions of Parma and Tuscany in Favour of the Infante Don Carlos, in Default of Heirs Male of the Houses of Farnese and Medicis, in order that Nothing shall hinder the Conclusion of the Peace between the Emperour and King of Spain, pursuant to the Vth Article in the Treaty of Quadruple Alliance, and the Deliberations of the Three Colleges of the Dyet. --- The Cardinal de Saxe-Zeits is returned hither from Presbourg, and appointed all the Protestant Ministers of the Empire some Days ago to a Conference, on which Occasion, he complained to them in the Emperour's Name, that the Evangelical Body had not yet recalled their Plenipotentiary M. de Rech from Heidelberg; but they answered his Eminency, that their Principals considered the Emperour only as Executor of the Fundamental Laws and Constitutions of the Empire, and not as their Judge in Matters of Religion; therefore their Right is not to be disputed of seeing and examining themselves into the due Execution of those Laws according to the good Intention and Order of his Imperial Majesty; that they would however inform their Masters of his Eminency's Proposition, and desire to receive their Instructions on that Head.

Dantzick, Jan. 8. Letters from Russia confirm, with many Circumstances, that the Army which the Czar carried into Persia, consisting of about 70 or 80,000 Men, is returned so extremely weakned and diminished to Astracan, that his Majesty hearing at Casan the News of their Arrival and Condition, was so concerned that he resolved to return thither and defer for some time his Journey to Muscow. --- Letters from Moscow are handed about, affirming, that the Grand Signior has declared War against the Czar; that his Majesty was not arrived at his Capital the 3d past, but was expected there towards the End of the Month in case the Weather permitted. --- Advices from Stockholm say, that some of the foreign Ministers there are very industrious to find out the Drift of the private Negociations between the Prussian and Muscovite Envoys. It is observed, that the former had Audience of the King of Sweden after every Conference he had with M. Bestuchef. Letters from Berlin give an Account, that the King of Prussia, instead of going to Pomerania, is determined to make a private Tour to Hambourg. --- The Delinquents that are in Custody at Petersbourg for keeping suspicious Correspondencies prejudical to the State, have received a Respite for some Weeks, though Sentence is already passed upon them. 'Tis said those Persons have given Assurances to discover, not only the private Correspondence they were themselves concerned in, but likewise the whole Detail of the Conspiracy framed in Muscovy. ---- Letters from Copenhagen say, that the Princess de Culmbach, Mother of the Princess Royal of Denmark, arrived there the 5th Instant in the Evening.

Hague, Jan. 12. The States of Holland separated last Week, after they had disposed of some Commissions that were vacant; To-morrow they are to meet again, and will then dispose of the Regiment of Guards, and other Vacancies. --- The Deputation from Zealand, that was expected here last Week, is again put off, by reason it is to consist of several Members of the States of that Province, who differing from one another in the Affairs of the Finances, cannot set out upon that Deputation till they are agreed. ---- The States have caused the Marquess de Monteleone to be acquainted, that 'tis very probable they may shortly send a Minister to Madrid in Quality of Envoy or Resident, but not with the Character of Ambassadour. They have desired him to renew his Instances at his Court in behalf of a French Protestant, Inhabitant of this Province, who being at Barcelona upon Affairs of Commerce, was some time ago clapt up into the Inquisition. --- The Province of Overyssel having lately reformed two Men a Company of their Quota of Troops, the Council of State has complained of it as contrary to the Union.
